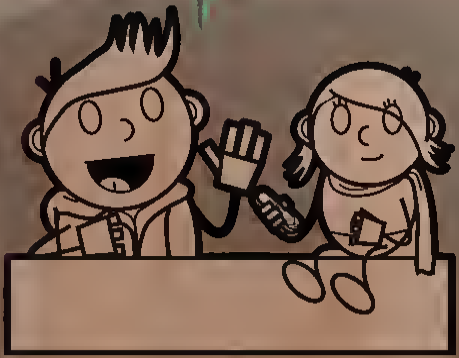
Pigminted

Q and A time! Thank you all for submitting the questions. Now let's get started!



What is the story behind your name?

My comic's name comes from the word "pigment," which means color, so, Pigmented means colored. Buuuttt.... I couldn't get the domain name so, I changed the spelling.

Can you do the splits?
Nope. Maybe one day.

Ever tried paani puri or any other Indian dish? And do you know Hindi?

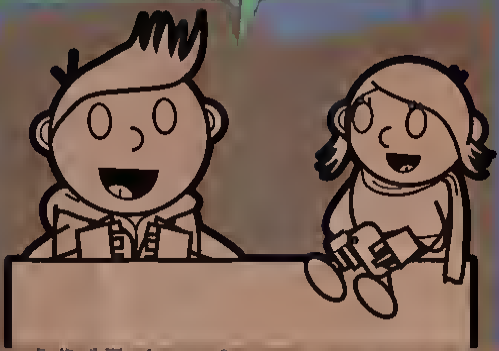
I have not, but I have had plenty of Indian food because it tastes great. Also, my Grandma shoved it down my throat. I don't know how to speak Hindi (but I understand it), however, I do speak Punjabi.

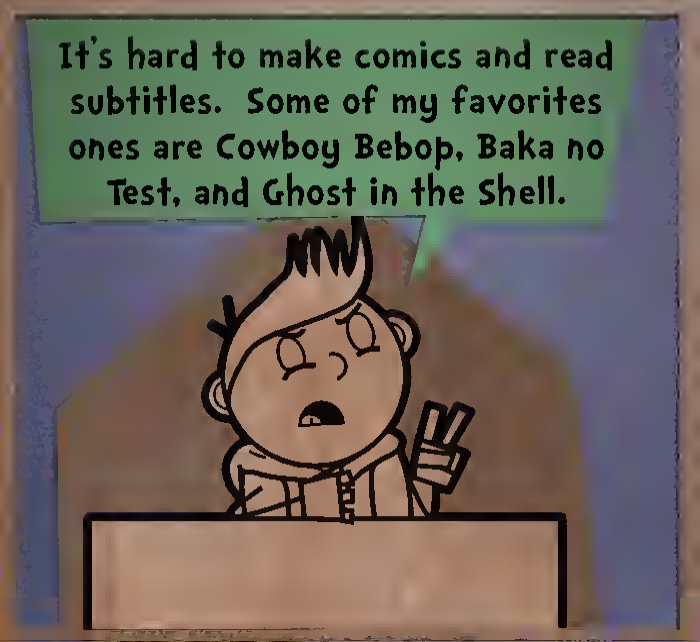
What does is this comic supposed to be all about? Did you plan something else when you began this comic?

This comic was supposed to be just jokes I made up. As I did more and more, it slowly became more about stories of my life. There really wasn't a goal or intention per say, just make funny stuff.

do ... you ... love .. ANIME?

I do. I used to watch more when I was younger, not so much anymore.





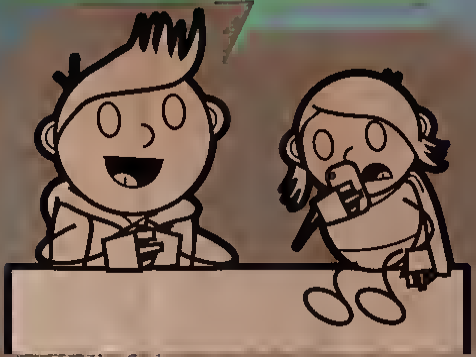
It's hard to make comics and read subtitles. Some of my favorites ones are Cowboy Bebop, Baka no Test, and Ghost in the Shell.

How old are you? Just curious.

28, turning 29.

What movies do you like?

I like everything but horror. One of my favorites is "Snatch," which was released in 2000.

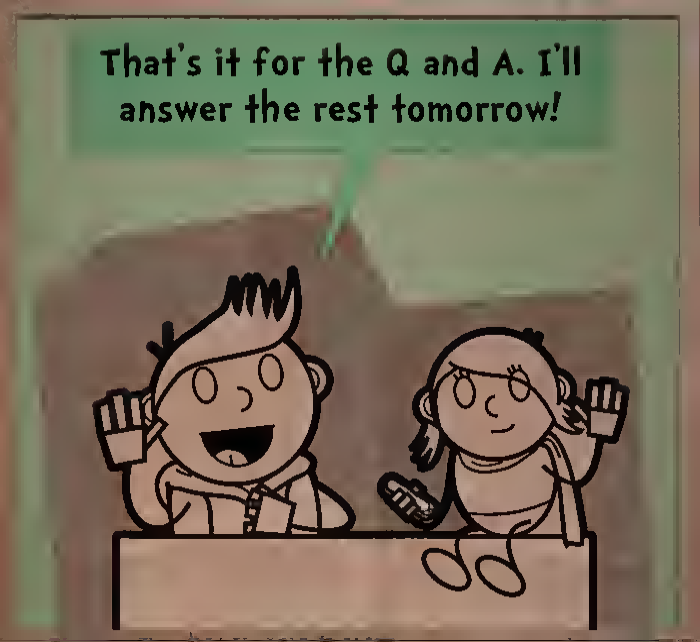


Is your grandma actually Grandma Gertrude which is why she acts mean and sassy

Oh, she is. She grew up in the villages of India, poor and had to struggle to survive. So, her mentality comes from that. She's mean but, it comes from a place of love.

"I LOVE YOUR COMIC SOOOoOOOoMUCh I don't know WHAT I WOULd DO WITH OUT ThEm -SIGHS-I looooooove u"

Cupcake566 is lying.



That's it for the Q and A. I'll answer the rest tomorrow!
